Rødovre Skating Club (Denmark) is looking for a new head coach.

If you are ambitious and passionate about figure skating and at the same time a skilled coach, you are the one we are looking for as head coach in Rødovre Skating Club. Rødovre is a city located near Copenhagen, the capital of Denmark.

Rødovre Skating Club offers our skaters several disciplines: Single skating, ice dance and solo dance. This implies that our new coach must have experience in all of these disciplines.

Our new head coach ideally:

- Has a background/knowledge within both single skating and solo dance/ice dance
- Is able to teach both single skating and solo dance/ice dance and has a solid professional foundation, both on ice and regarding off-ice activities
- Is able to do choreography at all levels
- Needs to be able to familiarize him/herself with the Danish competition and brand test rules
- Is able to lead, coordinate and develop the coaching team
- Is able to collaborate with the board, the coaching team and the parents
- Is able to, in collaboration with the board, solve administrative tasks such as preparation of training plans, planning of camps, shows, etc.
- Is able to participate as coach in competitions over weekends
- Is able to speak good and understandable English and is prepared to learn Danish
- Wants to and likes to work with children as well as with young adults and adults

Rødovre Skating Club offers:

- A positive attitude for further development of your skills as a coach
- The opportunity to impact the development of the skaters, especially the youngest
- The opportunity to learn the Danish language with support from the club
- Good collaboration between colleagues and the club's board
- Assistance with the practicality of moving to Denmark
- Good terms of employment, including 6 weeks holiday and paid days off on national holidays etc.

About Rødovre Skating Club:

Rødovre Skating Club is a club with about 100 skaters, skating at all levels and in different disciplines. Currently, the club is focused on developing younger skaters to a competitive level, just as existing competition- and championship skaters in all disciplines need to be developed.

We have 2 ice skating rinks and ice time from August to May.

The offer is a full-time position with an average of 37 hour work week. Wages are agreed individually and determined based on your qualifications. We are hiring as soon as possible.

Further information can be obtained from the club's chairman, Joan Dahl Hansen, at formand@rsik-kunst.dk. Please forward you application and CV to formand@rsik-kunst.dk.

Regards,

The board of Rødovre Skating Club, RSIK-Kunsten
